

CHRISTMAS AT SEE

Christmas at sea, far away from home
No families and no heavenly snow
Christmas at sea, visions of home
Sailing tonight all alone.

Black is the night on the ocean.
Candlelight shines on the sea
Evryone's full with emotion.
At home that's where they long to be
Mama is reading your letter.
Jingle-bells ring all night long
White are the trees and the meadows.
Children are singing a song.
Refrein

Midnight is near and we're praying.
Everyone fights back his tears.
Lord bring them home someone's saying.
And keep them safe while they are here.

Christmas at sea, far away from home
No families and no heavenly snow
Christmas at sea, visions of home
Sailing tonight all alone, all alone
Christmas at sea!
