

Sailing Home

Sailin' home.....of the sea
Feelin' young, feelin' strong
At the hight of the fight, so nothing can go wrong
We know we always wanna be, fighting the sea*

giant wavesof distant light
Feelin' young, feelin' strong
And the might of the night, is pounding dark and long
We know we always wanna be, fighting the sea

But there's the light and there's the fire:
The harbour's key shines dimly on the shore
We can see the steeple spire and now we know we won the fight once more Feelin'yong, feelin' strong and tonight came out right but tomorrow could be wrong
We know we always wanna be, fighting the sea

solo instumentaal + neuriën

So young, so strong, so hard at all Feelin' young, feelin' strong and tonight came out right, but tomorrow could be wrong
We know we always wanna be * fighting' the sea
Sailin' home across the ocean Sailin' home going to be free
So young, so strong, so hard at all
