

SONNY'S DREAM

Sonny lives on a farm, on a wide open space.
Where you can take off your sneakers and give up the race.
Where you can lay down your head by a sweet river bed.
But Sonny always remembers what it was his mama sai-ai-ai-aid.

Sonny don't go away, I am here all alone.
Your daddy's a sailor who never comes home.
And the nights get so long and the silence goes on.
I'm feeling so tired, and not all that stro-o-o-ong.

Sonny carries a load, though he's barely a man.
There ain't all that to do, still he does what he can.
And he watches the sea from a room by the stairs.
And the waves keep on rolling, they've done that for Years, and years, and years.

It's a hundred miles to town, Sonny's never been there.
But he goes to the highway and stands there a stares.
And the mail comes at four and the mailman is old.
Sonny still dreams his dreams full of silver and gold,
and gold, and gold.

Sonny's dreams can't be real, they're just stories he's read.
They're just stars in his eyes; they're just dreams in his head.
And he hungers inside for that wide world outside.
But he knows he can't hold it, though he's tried and tried,
and tried, and tried.
